LAYTON'S IMPROVED ARITHMOMETER

Standard Lightweight Model

A Perfected Calculating Machine of Established Reputation

Price $300. (Including slide lever)

The value and importance of a first-class and trustworthy calculating machine to actuaries, statisticians, accountants and others dealing with mathematical problems has long been conceded. Such a machine is a great labor and time saver, while the relief it affords from wearying brain work is incalculable.

LAYTON'S IMPROVED ARITHMOMETER

fills all the requirements of such a machine, and the large number in use bear daily testimony to their effectiveness. Insurance companies find this machine of particular value in their daily work and during the many years the original model has been in use it has given universal satisfaction. Valuable improvements in the new model, adding greatly to its efficiency, coupled with the high quality of its workmanship, make this the best and most advanced calculating machine on the market. The above illustration fairly shows its construction and method of operation.

Responsible corporations and individuals may order this machine on 10 days' trial.

We have exclusive contracts with many guaranteed members of this the greatest underwriting association in the world, by which we are able to immediately cover large amounts on desirable risks irrespective of other amounts on the same properties obtained through other channels.

For more than thirty years we have conducted this department of business with European and American companies and our facilities are unequalled.

There never is trouble, vexation, or delay in the adjustment of losses when forms have been drawn and risks have been placed through our office.

MEDICAL EXAMINERS

SPECIALLY QUALIFIED TO HANDLE INSURANCE CASES.

We take pleasure in presenting the following List of Physicians, each of whom can be recommended as being a competent examiner for insurance companies. ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS

SPECIALY QUALIFIED TO HANDLE INSURANCE CASES.

It is a well-known fact that few lawyers are competent to properly handle an insurance case without a special knowledge of the business, however skillful they may be as general practitioners. We have requested from a large number of well-known underwriters the names of attorneys whom they have found to be competent and satisfactory in the conduct of cases placed in their charge. The following list is made up of the names thus voluntarily given, together with a few others who have given special attention to insurance law.

The Spectator:

AN AMERICAN REVIEW OF INSURANCE.PUBLISHED WEEKLY.Subscription Price, $4.00 per Annum.*

THE SPECTATOR is a live and progressive insurance journal, noted for its pungent and fearless discussion of all matters pertaining to the vast subject of insurance in every branch. In the many years of its existence it has built up a reputation for fair and honest treatment of insurance matters that has made it invaluable to insurance men of every class, whether they be

MANAGERS OF COMPANIES OR AGENTS IN THE FIELD.

It contains the latest and freshest insurance news from every quarter, bright and sparkling correspondence from the principal insurance centers of the country, comments on current insurance events of the day, and able discussions on the principles of Life, Fire, Accident and Miscellaneous Insurance.

A most valuable feature of THE SPECTATOR is the presentation from time to time of carefully prepared and voluminous of the business of Life, Fire and Miscellaneous Insurance, usually in a comparative form, showing the business transactions and detailed experience of all companies for a series of years. These statistics are compiled by experts having no personal interest to serve, but are prepared solely for the purpose of analyzing the subject.

THE MOST EMINENT WRITERS

on Insurance in its various forms are contributors to its columns, and the aim of its proprietors is to present the science of the insurance systems in vogue without prejudice to any and in fairness to all. It is in this spirit that Fire, Life, Industrial, Accident and Employers' Liability, Natural Premium Life and Miscellaneous Insurance Companies, Associations and Societies are treated without fear or favor. It also gives the current news from different insurance centers each week, and each number is that are of interest to the profession at large. In short, it is the ambition of its proprietors to make THE SPECTATOR an invaluable journal to every person identified with the insurance interest in any capacity, and its unprecedented success is evidence that their efforts are appreciated.

AN EPITOME OF INSURANCE AFFAIRS

Any business man entering the insurance profession as manager, agent or broker should address The Spectator Company for information regarding the various treatises and other instructive publications printed in the interest of the particular branches of insurance. Managers and general agents should see that their sub-agents are supplied with the various publications issued by it in behalf of insurance. The public interested in insurance from a fire, life or casualty standpoint should secure copies of the works of reference, containing reports on insurance companies, issued by it.

A complete Catalogue of insurance works will be sent to members of the insurance fraternity, or to any person, on receipt of ten cents to cover postage.

Attention is called to the condensed Catalogue of the insurance works of The Spectator Company presented on other pages of this issue.

Reasons why it should be Preferred by those Desiring Insurance

It has the benefit of sixty-four years' successful experience.

Its business is conducted on the mutual plan, thus enabling members to get their insurance at cost.

It has always paid large dividends, thereby making the cost of insurance low.

It maintains a reserve for the protection of policyholders, on the Massachusetts Standard, the highest basis required by the laws of any State.

It has a large surplus over the legal reserve and all other liabilities.

Its conditions as to travel and residence are very liberal.

Its policies are protected by the non-forfeiture laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which secure greater benefits to members than those of any other State.

It has always maintained a high reputation for just and liberal treatment of its members by promptly adjusting and settling all policy claims, a proof of which is the fact that no judgment has ever been rendered against it.
